

MEDICEO

SINCE 1988 THE KING OF THE SANDWICH

There is an art to the business of making sandwiches which it is given to few ever to find the time to explore in depth. It is a simple task, but the opportunities for satisfaction are many and profound [...]
- Douglas Adams, "Mostly Harmless", 1992

THE ONE AND ONLY...

Since 1988, the historic Paninoteca of Pisa, tradition and love for the territory are combined in the creation of the typical "Mediceo gourmet sandwich", long up to 35 cm and, at the same time, light thanks to the special bread recipe, perfected over the years and performed to the highest standards in our trusted artisan laboratory: the Valgraziosa bakery in Calci.

For the filling we use only locally sourced ingredients such as the strictly Tuscan cold cuts and the meats of the Ciampalini butcher.

The great passion for beer is also very evident, you will find a great selection with advice on how to pair them with the meal.

To this we add a young, passionate and in step with the times personeel to guarantee a unique and inimitable gastro-mystic experience.

and you... what kind of sandwich are you?

CHIANINA TOSCANA IGP CONSORTIUM 5R

Very ancient cattle breed that goes back to over 2500 years ago. The Chianino cannot stand intensive breed, that's why it's meat is very low-fat with small concentrations of fat near the muscles. This meat has a very strong flavour and unique juiciness.
